Terms and Conditions

The Builder nominates the DBI Distributor for the purpose of making applications to the VMIA for:

- eligibility for domestic building insurance required in accordance with a ministerial order issued under section 135 of the Building Act 1993 (Vic.) (DBI Insurance); and/ or
- a review of the terms and conditions of the Builder's eligibility to apply for DBI Insurance; and/ or
- DBI Insurance; and/ or
- amendment of the DBI Insurance and/ or to cancel the DBI Insurance

(each of which is known as an Application) including any Application made via BuildVic (Portal).

This nomination remains in force until such time that the Builder provides written notice to the VMIA that it no longer nominates the DBI Distributor to provide it with access to VicBuild.

In consideration of the VMIA providing access to VicBuild via the DBI Distributor, the Builder and its Registered Building Practitioner/s acknowledge and agree that:

- The VMIA has appointed DBI Distributors as its agent to assist builders make the Applications.
- Where the Builder provides any information to a DBI Distributor, it is acknowledged that the DBI Distributor is receiving the information as agent for the VMIA, and these terms and conditions apply as if the Builder was providing that information direct to the VMIA.
- When making an Application, all information provided by the Builder must be true, correct and complete.
- All directors and partners of the Builder will be jointly and severally responsible for the truth, correctness and completeness of any information provided to the VMIA by the Registered Building Practitioner or by any person the Registered Building Practitioner nominates and authorises to provide information to the VMIA as if each of the directors or partners of the Builder provided the information to the VMIA.
- If any of the information provided by or on behalf of the Builder when making an Application is not correct, the VMIA may refer the matter to the Victorian Building Authority to enquire into the conduct of the Builder and/ or the Registered Building Practitioner.
- The information provided by or on behalf of the Builder to the VMIA will be relied upon by the VMIA to help it decide whether to accept the Application and on what terms.
- The VMIA has the right at all times to seek additional information from the Builder and all other parties, entities or persons involved in or proposed to be involved in the building works which is the subject of an Application.
- The VMIA has the right to decline any Application even though the Builder may have been assessed as being eligible to request DBI Insurance.
